BLUEWATER ENERGY, INC - PRESS RELEASE

Bluewater Energy Solutions, Inc. a Georgia corporation based in Acworth, GA, is pleased to announce a reorganization of our corporate family due to the substantial growth and expansion of services that we have been privileged to experience over the last few years. The changes described below are intended to improve the efficiency of our operations and to facilitate continued growth and expansion of the Bluewater Energy family of service providers, while ensuring continuity of the highest standards of quality that our respected customers have come to expect from Bluewater Energy Solutions.

The partners that you have come to know during our eight years of operation have formed a new entity, Bluewater Energy Inc. This corporation shall provide management and support services, such as human resources, payroll, accounting, legal and safety services to the various Bluewater companies. Bluewater Consulting Services, LLC has been formed as a subsidiary of Bluewater Energy, Inc., specializing in staff augmentation services and other temporary staffing services to the energy industry. Bluewater Industrial Cleaning Services, LLC has also been formed as a subsidiary of Bluewater Energy, Inc., focusing on oil flushing, chemical cleaning, steam blowing, pipe cleaning and other similar services to energy projects and facilities. Bluewater Energy Solutions, Inc. shall also operate as a subsidiary of Bluewater Energy, Inc., furnishing a broad range of turnkey commissioning services and other turnkey and managed services for the energy industry.
